

THE SOCIETY FOR
CLINICAL NEUROPSYCHOLOGY

Society for Clinical Neuropsychology, Division 40 of the American Psychological Association

The professional organization focused on the convergence of clinical practice, scientific research, training and advocacy issues in neuropsychology

The Society for Clinical Neuropsychology:

- Advances the study of brain-behavior relationships and the clinical application of that knowledge to human problems
- Promotes the use of scientific research to develop our knowledge base and clinical techniques
- Promotes and develops quality standards of professional training and evidence-based practice
- Advocates for the interests of neuropsychologists both as a division and in concert with the American Psychological Association (APA)

Membership Benefits:

- Opportunity to keep abreast of the latest clinical practice and training issues, professional standards in neuropsychology and trends in scientific research
- Professional networking; mentoring; opportunities for research presentations and committee involvements for graduate students, fellows, and early career psychologists; various division awards recognizing early career achievements and scholarly research, and scholarships for graduate students in neuropsychology
- Five listservs that are open to all interested members
- A student organization - the Association of Neuropsychology Students in Training (ANST) - with an interactive website that provides networking for students and numerous student resources, with opportunities to learn about science, practice, and professional issues
- Newsletter that is published electronically twice yearly, in the Winter/Spring and Summer/Fall
- Rich program of scientific, educational, and social activities at the annual APA meeting

Join:

- APA members and non-APA members can join the division at www.apa.org/divapp.

Renew:

- If you have an APA membership (Members, Fellows, Associates, and Affiliates of APA) go to www.apa.org and log in to renew.
- If you are not a member of APA, renew your division membership at www.apa.org/divapp.
